TWO-WEEK EXTENSION ANNOUNCED FOR ELEVATOR REPAIR SERVICE'S ULYSSES,
IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE PUBLIC THEATER AND UNDER THE RADAR

Created by Elevator Repair Service

Text: Ulysses by James Joyce

Co-Direction and Dramaturgy by Scott Shepherd

Directed by John Collins

Performances Begin Tuesday, January 13 and Now Run Through March 1;
Official Press Opening Sunday, January 25

“The Elevator Repair Service production...somehow manages to reduce the novel’s more than 260,000 words to 2 hours and 40 minutes with much of its humor, pathos, and bawdiness intact.”

— Jesse Green, The New York Times

“A heroic achievement...Elevator Repair Service’s adaptation merrily condenses the choicest essentials of James Joyce’s magnum opus.”

— Jonathan Goldman, Village Voice

January 13, 2026 – The Public Theater (Artistic Director, Oskar Eustis; Executive Director, Patrick Willingham) and Elevator Repair Service (Artistic Director, John Collins) begins previews for the New York City premiere of ULYSSES, directed by John Collins, with co-direction and dramaturgy by Scott Shepherd. ULYSSES begins performances in the Martinson Hall on Tuesday, January 13 with a Joseph Papp Free Performance and an official press opening on Sunday, January 25. Originally scheduled to close on Sunday, February 15, the production has now extended through Sunday, March 1.

Following last fall’s sold-out encore of Gatz—“The most remarkable achievement in theater of the decade” (New York Times)—Elevator Repair Service (ERS) takes on the Mount Everest of twentieth-century literature. James Joyce’s Ulysses has fascinated, perplexed, scandalized, and/or defeated readers for over a century. In this New York City premiere, seven performers sit down for a sober reading but soon find themselves guzzling pints, getting in brawls, and committing debaucheries as they careen on a fast-forward tour through Joyce’s funhouse of styles. With humor, pathos, and a richly layered design, ERS stitches together verbatim passages from Joyce’s epic masterpiece into a two-and-a-half hour tour de force.

The cast of ULYSSES includes Dee Beasnael, Kate Benson, Maggie Hoffman, Vin Knight, Scott Shepherd, Christopher-Rashee Stevenson, and Stephanie Weeks.

The production includes scenic design by dots, costume design by Enver Chakartash, lighting design by Marika Kent, sound design by Ben Williams, projection design by Matthew Deinhart, and prop design by Patricia Marjorie. Maurina Lioce will be the production stage manager and Kelsey Vivian will be the stage manager.

The Public Theater’s Winter/Spring season continues with Anna Ziegler’s ANTIGONE (THIS PLAY I READ IN HIGH SCHOOL), a riveting take on Sophocles’ classic, will premiere in the Anspacher with direction by Tyne Rafaeli. Ma-Yi Theater Company’s season-long residency continues with the world premiere of JESA by Jeena Yi and directed by Mei Ann Teo. Simultaneously, PUBLIC CHARGE will run in the Newman, a world premiere play based on true events by former United States Ambassador Julissa Reynoso and award-winning playwright Michael J. Chepiga. Later in the spring, The Public will present SEAGULL: TRUE STORY, produced by MART Foundation, written by Eli Rarey, and created and directed by Alexander Molochnov after a successful run at La MaMa last spring. Finally, the 25-26 Astor Place season will conclude with the much-anticipated world premiere of GIRL, INTERRUPTED based on the groundbreaking memoir by Susanna Kaysen, with a book by Martyna Majok, original music by Aimee Mann, choreography by Sonya Tayeh, and direction by Jo Bonney.

SHAKESPEARE FOR THE CITY, presented by Citizens, returns this summer with programming all across New York City. First up will be Mobile Unit’s AS YOU LIKE IT, directed by inaugural Directing Fellow Emma Rosa Went. The first production at The Delacorte this summer will be Free Shakespeare in the Park’s ROMEO AND JULIET, directed by Public Theater Associate Artistic Director Saheem Ali. SHAKESPEARE FOR THE CITY will conclude with Free Shakespeare in the Park’s THE WINTER’S TALE directed by Delacorte veteran Daniel Sullivan.

The Library serves food and drink beginning at 5:00 p.m. and closing at midnight. The Library is closed on Mondays. For more information, visit publictheater.org.

ABOUT THE PUBLIC THEATER:

THE PUBLIC continues the work of its visionary founder Joe Papp as a civic institution engaging, both on-stage and off, with some of the most important ideas and social issues of today. Conceived over 60 years ago as one of the nation's first nonprofit theaters, The Public has long operated on the principles that theater is an essential cultural force and that art and culture belong to everyone. Under the leadership of Artistic Director Oskar Eustis and Executive Director Patrick Willingham, The Public's wide breadth of programming includes an annual season of new work at its landmark home at Astor Place, Free Shakespeare in the Park at The Delacorte Theater in Central Park, the Mobile Unit touring throughout New York City's five boroughs, Public Works, and Joe's Pub. Since premiering HAIR in 1967, The Public continues to create the canon of American Theater and is currently represented on Broadway by the Tony Award-winning musicals Hamilton by Lin-Manuel Miranda and Hell's Kitchen by Alicia Keys and Kristoffer Diaz. Their programs and productions can also be seen regionally across the country and around the world. The Public has received 64 Tony Awards, 195 Obie Awards, 62 Drama Desk Awards, 64 Lortel Awards, 36 Outer Critic Circle Awards, 13 New York Drama Critics' Circle Awards, 72 AUDELCO Awards, 6 Antionyo Awards, and 6 Pulitzer Prizes. publictheater.org

The Public Theater stands in honor of the first inhabitants and our ancestors. We acknowledge the land on which The Public and its theaters stand—the original homeland of the Lenape people. We acknowledge the painful history of genocide and forced removal from this territory. We honor the generations of stewards and we pay our respects to the many diverse indigenous peoples still connected to this land.

ABOUT ELEVATOR REPAIR SERVICE:

Elevator Repair Service (ERS) is a New York City-based company that creates original works for live theater with an ongoing ensemble. The company's shows are created from a wide range of texts that include found transcripts of trials and debates, literature, classical dramas, and new plays. Founded in 1991, ERS has created an extensive body of work, which has earned the company a loyal following and made it one of New York's most highly acclaimed experimental theater companies. The company is best known for Gatz, its award-winning verbatim staging of the entire text of The Great Gatsby. ERS has received numerous awards and distinctions, including Lortel awards, a Bessie award, and an OBIE award for Sustained Excellence, as well as a Guggenheim Fellowship and Doris Duke Performing Artist Award for Artistic Director John Collins.

ABOUT UNDER THE RADAR:

For over two decades, the Under the Radar theater festival has brought bold, risk-taking work to New York City, celebrating groundbreaking theater and performance both from around the world and from just down the street. Produced in partnership with venues across the city, the festival showcases innovative multidisciplinary artists whose work speaks powerfully to the present moment. UTR's 21st season, running January 7 to January 25, convenes a lineup of more than 30 productions at 25 separate venues, including Lincoln Center, La MaMa, PSNY, New York Theater Workshop, and the longtime prior home of UTR, The Public Theater. 2026 marks Under the Radar's third year as a citywide collaboration, informed by the multiplicity of visions of our partner institutions' artistic leaders. This season features the most exclusively Under the Radar-commissioned and produced work we have offered yet. 2026 also inaugurates a new leadership model in which Co-Creative Directors Meropi Peponides and Kaneza Schaal join Founder and Artistic Director Mark Russell to form the first of what will be a rotating cohort of festival curators, ensuring the festival's programming is forever of-the-moment. The festival is produced by Thomas O. Kriegsmann and Sami Pyne of ArKtype. Find out more at utrfest.org
